

I am deeply concerned about the new FCC proposed changes that would limit current FM translator services. Low power FM unfortunately makes popular radio stations like Air 1 unavailable to many listeners. Please take appropriate action to ensure that this does not occur.